

2005
SONOMA COAST
PINOT NOIR

Our 2005 Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir is a blend of four vineyards: Kanzler Miron, Demeo and Dutton-Manzana. All of these vineyards lie in and around Green Valley, which is one of the coolest climates in Sonoma County. This region produces exotic Pinot Noir, which is deep, complex and full of dark cherry, berry and clean earth components.

AROMATICS: Bold black cherry and blackberry accented with hints of mushroom and cocoa.

ON THE PALATE: True to the appellation, the 2005 Sonoma Coast is brimming with dark, deep fruit. Hints of earth and black tea offer depth while juicy plum and blackberry make up the mouth-coating, rich structure. Hints of boysenberry, shitake mushroom and dusty cedar round of the finish.
