

KOSTA BROWNE SINGLE VINEYARD WINES

2019 Rita's Crown Pinot Noir

Soaring Elevations and Distinctive Aromatics

We are thrilled to welcome the 2019 Rita's Crown, Sta. Rita Hills, Pinot Noir to our hallmark Fall Offering. Planted in 2007 and observed as the highest vineyard site of the appellation, Rita's Crown is predominantly south facing and boasts intensely high elevations and slope, allowing the vines to receive an extraordinary amount of sunshine and coastal wind. This, combined with the region's typical diatomaceous earth, adds distinct intensity to the fruit.

Rita's Crown is intriguing and unusually complex, featuring a dichotomy of flavor. Rich dark fruits and herbal forest floor notes combine to showcase a round and luscious palate of appealing texture. Layered, elegant, and decadent, it's a wine with true soul.

Fact of Note: Rita's Crown is the most exposed vineyard in Sta. Rita Hills to Mother Nature.
